

ALLIED ARTISTS MUSIC GROUP

An Allied Artists Int'l Company

OFFICE OF PRESS RELATIONS

PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

October 15, 2012

NEW ALBUM FROM LUIS CARDENAS TO BE DELAYED UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE

First album from Grammy nominated Renegade drummer in years, introducing sons Nick and Zach Cardenas being pulled from release schedule by label executives

Glendale, CA – The long-awaited solo album from Luis Cardenas, drummer for Latin rockers Renegade, has been pulled from the label's release schedule and no new release date has been established. "Generations," a name chosen to depict the inclusion of Cardenas's sons Nick and Zach, and the album's title cut, is "in the can," according to label President Stephan Bauer, but "will not be distributed at this time, and no new date has been established."

Allied Artists Music Group began life as the music soundtrack division of Allied Artists Pictures. Throughout the years, the Allied Artists' name has not only been associated with legendary motion pictures, but truly memorable soundtracks, such as "Cabaret," by Liza Minnelli and Joel Grey. Today, the company strives to produce, market and distribute quality music across all genres that is both timeless and cutting edge.

# # #

Contact: Jerry Sifuentes, Office of Press Relations at (626) 330-0600 x8150 from Los Angeles, (646) 350-0009 x8150 from New York or via Email at: pressrelations@alliedartists.net.